Re: JANE GIBSON

Herbert Baier of Hamilton Road informed me that last Sunday morning he had been to New Brunswick and when at Hamilton and Lewis Streets on his return a woman motioned to him that she desired a ride. He pulled up to let her get into the auto and then discovered that she was Jane Gibson; that when he reached his place Mrs. Gibson wanted to get out, telling him not to take the trouble to drive her to her home. However, Baier told her it was no trouble and drove on to her farm.

He says that Mrs. Gibson did not look ill but that she has a worried appearance.

Baier further claims that Mrs. Gibson's trip into New Brunswick was not known to the State Troopers who are stationed on her farm as a body guard.

This for your information.
